John Scally
<john@lecheiletrust.ie>

to me

Gary,

I hope the day is going well back in school!

Great to see you yesterday and I am thrilled that you are back in our school in Ursuline Waterford and yet also free to do the RE Teachers day – so Le Cheile gets the best of both worlds!

I will be sending my first of my weekly emails tomorrow – but I want to keep it just for welcoming people back – but also flag the Anam Cara training day.

For next weeks I am thinking of on the lines of:

I will be sending you on the details of our RE teachers workshops soon – which this year will be happening in the first term. I am delighted to say that [REDACTED] has kindly agreed to give workshops again this year following the great feedback to his sessions last year. For those of you who could not make it I attach the resources he gave out last year in dropbox format. We will be making these and other resources available on a padlet page in due course. To help us plan the sessions in a way that teachers would get the most benefit from I would welcome any suggestions you might have for these workshops. One change we will be introducing this year is – mindful of WSEs and the Department's emphasis on Reflective Practice and CPT we hope to present a Le Chéile certificate of attendance which teachers who attend will be able to put into their folders to show to any visiting inspector, WSE or subject inspection, as proof of ongoing professional development.

We don't need to be too exhaustive – but if there is anything you would like me to change let me know.

Something else to think about – for a bit down the road – one of the things I am trying to do is to get some schools to work together on a project – to help build the Le Chéile identity. [REDACTED]
[REDACTED]

[REDACTED] Waterford would seem perfect for this – a boys and a girl school. [REDACTED] – but perhaps as important their new principal is [REDACTED] – who is big into ethos and has big buy in to Le Chéile so I would imagine she would be very supportive. So what would happen would be me travelling down to Waterford sometime to meet you and [REDACTED] to see what, if anything, might be possible – after the Anam Cara day when we will have looked at this. I haven't spoken to De la Salle yet.

Kind Regards

Hi all,

Welcome back!

I hope you all had a restful and relaxing summer and that you are all ready to face the new school year full of energy and optimism.

Given the creativity and commitment that I have already seen from our wonderful teachers and chaplains I have no doubt that the year will be another great success.

Our first event of the new school year is the Anam Cara training day - which was a great event last year. I hope to see as many people as possible back again this year. Equally as we have many schools who do not have an Anam Cara I would love to see some new schools also sending representatives this year. I attach a booking form. For catering purposes it is important to have a good idea of numbers earlier than later – so I would love to get early replies please.

I attach a little reflection which might speak to some of you.

Regardless every good wish for the new school year.

Thanks to those of you who have already sent back the booking form for our Anam Cara day on Wednesday September 21. If you any of you are in a school that does not already have an Anam Cara and would like more information about it please do not hesitate to contact me.

I also attach both the final version of the Brochure for the Faith Development Course and the application form. For those of you who know our Middle Leaders Course it is modelled on that format. Last year we had some teachers from our schools who attended and seemed to find it helpful and stimulating. You might have some colleagues who could find it of interest and I would be grateful if you would pass it on to them.

Finally the dates for LCA RE training are:

1. Limerick Education Centre September 13th

Hi all,

Thanks to all of you who already confirmed your place on the Anam Cara day on Wednesday September 21st. I have to give indicative numbers to the caterers on Friday, so it would be very helpful to know who was coming by then. It would also be great to know how many people need a vegetarian option for lunch.

As you all know Mother Teresa was canonised last week. Thanks to our wonderful [REDACTED] [REDACTED] for forwarding a powerpoint about her and also a collection of quotes from her.

In addition I have made out a little piece which contrasts Mother Teresa's values with those of the modern world – which might be dramatized in class by two students. I also attach a longer piece based on an interview I once did with Mother Teresa.

Hi all, firstly thanks to all the great Anam Caras for making the session on Wednesday a wonderful day and such a privilege for me to be there amidst such terrifically talented and committed people.

My particular gratitude to [REDACTED]
[REDACTED] for this lovely piece.

I attach the details of our upcoming RE training workshops. Last year's event was focused on the exam classes. This year's will be pitched equally for non- exam and exam classes and be much more general in terms of a creative methodology etc. As I mentioned previously we will have a Certificate of Attendance this year which you can put in your folder to show in an inspection – school or subject – as evidence of CPD. I attach the first draft of it so you can see what it will look like. For catering purposes it is a huge help to get as much advance notice as possible as to who will attend.

Have a lovely weekend.

Hi all,

At our Anam Cara training day last Wednesday we got a presentation from [REDACTED] on Development Education. I attach her powerpoint. [REDACTED] would welcome contact from any of our schools seeking resources/assistance with setting up a programme in the Development Education area etc. Her email is [REDACTED]

When I was teaching one of the charities I worked with was the Hope Foundation. Each year I got [REDACTED] to visit our school and talk about their work and her experiences working with street children in India. I have spoken again with [REDACTED] and she would be delighted to come to any of the Le Chéile schools interested. She also has some resources she can forward on. Her email is [REDACTED]

Hi all,

Thanks to those of you who have already sent in your booking forms for our RE cluster meetings. I look forward to meeting you in the coming weeks starting off with the cluster in the West in Claremorris on Wednesday October 19th. It is so helpful for the catering to have a good idea of numbers in advance. When I was teaching one of the charities I worked with was Team Hope – they are the charity who are involved in The Christmas Shoebox appeal. I attach some information about it. I have met with them and while they are already working with some of our schools they would be delighted to work with more. They have volunteers across the country and they are happy to go to any of our schools – to give a talk about their work, bring dvds, posters etc. While they are best known for the Christmas shoebox programme they also have other projects. One I think that might be of interest to some schools is a TY programme which nurtures both social awareness and some leadership training of a kind. If you would like further information on any of this [REDACTED] [REDACTED] would be very happy to hear from you. [REDACTED] is a lovely person and will be very helpful. Her number is [REDACTED] The Concern Fast is also on the horizon. For those of you who may not wish to do the fast they have some alternative fundraising ideas which some of you might find of interest. I attach the details.
