Hi Gary,

Thanks again for doing such a great job yesterday – and for bringing the resources – teachers love going home with stuff!

Just to say that we send out our timetable for the new year to schools at the end of the May – so as with you last year I would like to get [REDACTED] sorted out for next year by early May. You mentioned about the politics of the PDST yesterday – so would you mind giving it a bit of thought before we meet in April – because May will come quickly!

Well done again on a great job.

Kind Regards

Hi Gary, I hope you had a good break.

Not sure when you are back but we need to meet at some stage to plan our next session of sessions. The good news is that I can take out for lunch at le Cheile's expense!

No mad rush

John

to me

Gary,

I hope the day is going well back in school!

Great to see you yesterday and I am thrilled that you are back in our school in Ursuline Waterford and yet also free to do the RE Teachers day – so Le Cheile gets the best of both worlds!

I will be sending my first of my weekly emails tomorrow – but I want to keep it just for welcoming people back – but also flag the Anam Cara training day.

For next weeks I am thinking of on the lines of:

I will be sending you on the details of our RE teachers workshops soon – which this year will be happening in the first term. I am delighted to say that Gary Carley has kindly agreed to give workshops again this year following the great feedback to his sessions last year. For those of you who could not make it I attach the resources he gave out last year in dropbox format. We will be making these and other resources available on a padlet page in due course. To help us plan the sessions in a way that teachers would get the most benefit from I would welcome any suggestions you might have for these workshops. One change we will be introducing this year is – mindful of WSEs and the Department's emphasis on Reflective Practice and CPT we hope to present a Le Chéile certificate of attendance which teachers who attend will be able to put into their folders to show to any visiting inspector, WSE or subject inspection, as proof of ongoing professional development.

We don't need to be too exhaustive – but if there is anything you would like me to change let me know.

Something else to think about – for a bit down the road – one of the things I am trying to do is to get some schools to work together on a project – to help build the Le Chéile identity. [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] Waterford would seem perfect for this – a boys and a girl school. [REDACTED] – but perhaps as important their new principal is [REDACTED] - who is big into ethos and has big buy in to Le Chéile so I would imagine she would be very supportive. So what would happen would be me travelling down to Waterford sometime to meet you and [REDACTED] to see what, if anything, might be possible – after the Anam Cara day when we will have looked at this. I haven't spoken to De la Salle yet.

Kind Regards

5 September 2016 - email sent to a group of teachers, including Gary Carley. Please also see attachments (Application Form 2016 Loyola Institute and Loyola Brochure Le Chéile)

Hi all,

I hope you are settling back!

I will be sending you on the details of our RE teachers workshops soon – which this year will be happening in the first term. I am delighted to say that Gary Carley has kindly agreed to give workshops again this year following the great feedback to his sessions last year. For those of you who could not make it I attach the resources he gave out last year in dropbox format. We will be making these and other resources available on a padlet page in due course. Thanks to those of you who have already sent back the booking form for our Anam Cara day on Wednesday September 21. If you any of you are in a school that does not already have an Anam Cara and would like more information about it please do not hesitate to contact me.

I also attach both the final version of the Brochure for the Faith Development Course and the application form. For those of you who know our Middle Leaders Course it is modelled on that format. Last year we had some teachers from our schools who attended and seemed to find it helpful and stimulating. You might have some colleagues who could find it of interest and I would be grateful if you would pass it on to them.

Finally the dates for LCA RE training are:

- 1. Limerick Education Centre September 13th
- 2. Drumcondra EC September 22nd.

All booking through the pdst.ie website.

Kind Regards
