

November Remembrance Service

Introductory Rite

Leader: In the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit.

All: Amen

Today we take time to remember those whom we've met on life's journey and who have now passed on to eternal life. We may be remembering someone very dear to us – a mother, father, brother or sister, a grandparent, a daughter or son, a dear friend or relation.....and we may also call to mind people who walked alongside us in life's journey for only a brief time, but who touched our lives deeply.....we remember those who have died during the past year, and all our loved ones who have died....

Lighting of the Candle

Reader 1:

Lord Jesus, you said, 'I am the Light of the World'.

As we light this candle, we ask that your light will shine on all those who have died....May they be bathed always in the light of your love and grace, and come to eternal life with you.

All: Amen (Candle Bearer now lights the candle)

Opening Prayer

Leader: Loving God, you are close to those who call on you.

Be with us, as we mourn the loss of family and friends.

Comfort us by your promise of eternal life.

We make this prayer through Christ our Lord.

All: Amen

Liturgy of the Word

Reader 2: A reading from St. Paul's letter to the Romans (14:7-9)

None of us lives for oneself, and no one dies for oneself.

For if we live, we live for the Lord, and if we die, we die for the Lord; so then, whether we live or die, we are the Lord's.

For this is why Christ died and came to life, that he might be Lord of both the dead and the living.

The word of the Lord

Ritual

Prayer Leader:

Let us now take a moment to remember in silence our loved ones who have died:

All place names of people they would like to remember on the tree.

Reflection:

Reader 1: At the rising of the sun and at its going down

All: We remember them.

Reader 1: At the blowing of the wind and in the chill of winter

All: We remember them.

Reader 1: At the opening of the buds and in the rebirth of spring

All: We remember them.

Reader 1: At the blueness of the skies and in the warmth of summer

All: We remember them.

Reader 1: At the rustling of the leaves and in the beauty of autumn

All: We remember them.

Reader 1: At the beginning of the year and when it ends

All: We remember them.

Reader 1: As long as we live, they too will live; for they are now a part of us as we remember them.

Prayer Leader: Eternal rest grant unto them, O Lord

All: And let perpetual light shine upon them.

Prayer Leader: May the souls of the faithful departed through the mercy of God rest in peace.

All: Amen

Prayers of the Faithful

Prayer Leader: Let us ask God to hear the prayers of our hearts:

Reader 5: For all the people we know and love who have died and whom we remember today. Lord, hear us.

Reader 5: For all who are sad and in mourning because of a loved one's death.
May they experience comfort and support in their Christian community. Lord, hear us.

Reader 5: For all who have died a violent death – May they now know the peace of Christ. Lord, hear us.

Reader 5: For all people who are dying at this time. May they experience the presence of Christ with them. Lord, hear us

Reader 5: For all people, that we may savour the gift of life given to us by God our Creator. Lord, hear us.

Reader 5: For our own intentions..... Lord, hear us.

Prayer Leader:

God our protector, hear the prayers we make to you in hope: May the Spirit of God open our hearts and ears to one another. We make this prayer through Jesus Christ our Lord.

All: Amen

Prayer Leader: Conscious that we are all sisters and brothers of one another and of Jesus, together we say: Our Father.....

If they were to speak to us, what would they say... take a moment to write down what the those who have died would say to you had they an opportunity to speak to you. Then put their words into the basket under the tree.

Prayer Leader:

God, we believe in your tender love for us. Give comfort and strength to those who mourn today. Take away any feeling of guilt and ease the burden of regret.
Keep them in your care and help them to renew their lives in a spirit of trust.
We ask this in faith, through Christ, Our Lord. Amen
